

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

LISTS OF MEMBERS AND THE RULES,
WITH A CATALOGUE OF THE BOOKS

PRINTED FOR

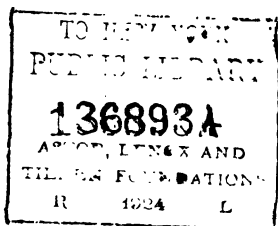

THE BANNATYNE CLUB

SINCE ITS INSTITUTION IN 1823.

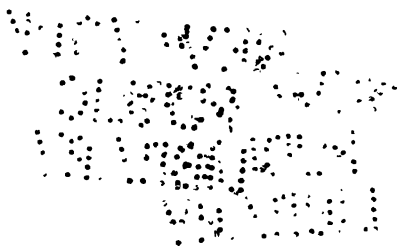

EDINBURGH : M.DCCC.LXVII.

M. Sm.

EDINBURGH: T. CONSTABLE,
PRINTER TO THE QUEEN, AND TO THE UNIVERSITY.

PREFACE.

THE following Lists and Catalogue have been prepared with due attention to accuracy, and exhibit in chronological order the names of all the Members of the Club, with the dates of admission, the Rules, and the titles of the various Works presented to or printed at the expense of the Club since its institution in 1823.

It has not been thought necessary to include in this Catalogue some small ephemeral productions in the shape of Garlands, Abstracts of the Treasurer's Accounts, and some Works referring to the Club, but not sanctioned by the Committee. One of these has this title—"Notices relative to the Bannatyne Club, instituted in February M.DCCC.XXIII. Including Critiques on some of its Publications. Edinburgh: Printed for Private Circulation, M.DCCC.XXXVI." 4to, pp. xviii. 277. This volume was edited by Mr. Maidment, and contains a reprint of Reviews which had appeared of several of the early Club publications.

The following works may be indicated as forming a suitable addition to the Club series:—

I. "Supplemental Descriptive Catalogue of Ancient Scottish Seals. By HENRY LAING." 1866. 4to. The style in which this work is executed, and its numerous illustrations, cannot fail to render it a valuable acquisition, even to those who may not possess the First Volume. (See page 80, No. 91.)

II. "Fasti Ecclesiæ Scoticanæ: The Succession of Ministers in the Parish Churches of Scotland, from 1560 to the present time. By the Rev. HEW SCOTT, A.M. Part I. 1866." 4to. (To be continued.)

III. "Relations Politiques de la France et de l'Espagne avec l'Écosse au XVI^e. siècle. Par ALEXANDRE TEULET." Paris, 1862. 5 vols. roy. 8vo.

It was suggested that a note of the various sets of Club books which have been disposed of by public auction, with the prices, should be subjoined. To do this in detail would serve no very useful purpose. It may simply be noticed that the first set brought to sale was Mr. Constable's, containing only twenty-seven volumes (or the books to the year 1828), at an upset price of £105, which produced £135. Lord Eldin's set, to the year 1831, exposed at an upset price of 120 guineas, sold for £150. Sir William Macleod Bannatyne's set, to the year 1834, brought £168. The fact, however, cannot be concealed that, as the books increased in number and importance, there was no corresponding increase in their pecuniary value. On some later occasions sets have realized 160 guineas and upwards, to 200 pounds or guineas; while single volumes required to complete sets have produced from four and five to ten pounds each. But the value of such a series of books is obviously not to be estimated merely by the market price, which will always vary according to circumstances.

DAVID LAING,
Secretary.

THE BANNATYNE CLUB.

"THIS CLUB was established in February 1823 ; and owes its formation and success, in a great degree, to the exertions of its late President, Sir Walter Scott, Bart. ; and also to Thomas Thomson, Esq., the successor of Sir Walter in that office. It consisted originally of thirty-one members ; but in consequence of the numerous applications for admission by persons of rank and literary distinction, the number was gradually extended, until it was definitively fixed to one hundred members. The annual contribution from each member is five guineas. The Club derives its name from GEORGE BANNATYNE, memorials of whom have been printed by the Club, whence the following account of himself, and the collection to which he owes his reputation, is taken.

"George Bannatyne was born on the 22d day of February 1545. To his seclusion from active life during his youth, is owing that rich collection of Scottish poetry which bears his name. He was living in 1606, and was then sixty-one years old : but the period of his death is not precisely known.

"The work called Bannatyne's manuscript, is in a folio form, containing upwards of eight hundred pages, very neatly and closely written, and designed, as has been supposed, to be sent to the press. The labour of compiling this valuable collection was undertaken during the time of pestilence, in the year 1568, when the dread of it compelled men to forsake their usual employments.

"After the death of George Bannatyne, the industrious compiler, his manuscript became the property of his grandson, George Foulis, of Ravelston. William Foulis of Woodhall (the great-grandson of George Bannatyne) bestowed this monument of his ancestor's taste and labours upon the Hon. William Carmichael, of Skirling, advocate. Finally, in the year 1772, the liberality of John, third Earl of Hyndford, made the Corpus Poeticum Scotorum public property, by depositing it in the Library of the Faculty of Advocates. It has been recently inlaid, and bound in a splendid manner, in two volumes.

"The object of the Institution is to print works illustrative of the history, antiquities, and literature of Scotland, either at the expense of the Club, or as contributions from individual members. The following list of works already printed will afford the best eulogium on their efforts."

("A Bibliographical Catalogue of Books privately printed, including those of the Bannatyne, Maitland, and Roxburghe Clubs. By John Martin, F.L.S.," pp. 359-378. Lond. 1834. 8vo.)

In the following Catalogue advantage has been taken of Mr. Martin's description of some of the earlier volumes. When his own work was republished in a second edition in 1854, he withheld his account of books issued from Private presses, or by Literary Clubs; but he did not live to complete his purpose of giving these in a separate volume.¹

to the Duke of Bedford at Woburn Abbey. (See Obituary in Gentleman's Magazine, March 1856, p. 317.)

(1.) *VITAE DUNKELDENSIS ECCLESIAE EPISCOPORUM, A PRIMA
SEDIS FUNDATIONE AD ANNUM M.D.XV. Ab ALEXANDRO MYLN, Ejusdem Ecclesiae Canonico, Conscriptae.*

Impressum Edinburgi, M.DCCC.XXIII. 4to, title, etc., and pp. 75.

Printed at the expense of the CLUB, and edited by THOMAS THOMSON, Esq., Vice-President. Seventy copies were printed. Prefixed to the work is an illumination, with the arms of Scotland in the centre; and at page 1 a specimen of the MS., with an illuminated letter R.

The original manuscript is a small quarto, consisting of 45 leaves of vellum, neatly written. The name on the first illuminated page shows that it had belonged to Sir William Sinclair of Roslin, an eminent collector. It was acquired by the Faculty of Advocates before the year 1705, when it was described in Nicolson's "Scottish Historical Library."

Of the author, ALEXANDER MYLN, it may be briefly noticed that he was successively a Canon of the Church of Aberdeen, Prebendary of Monithie, in the Cathedral of Dunkeld, and Abbot of Cambuskenneth. On the institution of the College of Justice in 1532, the Abbot was chosen Lord President, and he continued to hold this office till his death, which appears to have been at the close of the year 1548.

In the year 1831, when the number of Members of the Club was increased, it was thought desirable to have Abbot Myln's work reprinted for a limited number of Subscribers. The editor of this republication was COSMO INNES, Esq., who carefully revised the text, and succeeded in amending some obscure passages, more especially the Epitaph on Bishop Lauder, who died in 1481, by giving it a metrical arrangement. In the Latin Preface the Editor gives a brief notice of the Author and his work ; with an an Appendix and general Index.

VITAE DUNKELDENSIS ECCLESIAE EPISCOPORUM, etc. Editio Altera, cui accedit Appendix cum Nominum et Locorum Indice. Impressum Edinburgi, M.DCCC.XXXI. 4to. Title, pp. vii.,-141, and Index, pp. xii.

The Appendix added to this reprint consisted of Extracts from the Accounts of the Bishopric of Dunkeld, by Abbot Myln in 1513, and by Thomas Brown his successor as Master of Works in 1514 to 1516 for building the Bridge over the Tay at Dunkeld. For the advantage of possessors of the first edition of Myln's work, separate copies were thrown off, and sent to the original members of the Club. It has the following title :—"COMPOTUM MAGISTRI FABRICE PONTIS DUNKELDENSIS. M.D.XIII.—M.D.XVI. Impressum Edinburgi, M.DCCC.XXXI." 4to, pp. vii and pages 77 to 141. Index, pp. xii.

At page 83 of this Appendix, there is a facsimile of the manuscript Accounts.

(2.) POEMS, by SIR DAVID MURRAY of Gorthy.—[1611-1615.]

The first portion has a facsimile of the original title, "The Tragicall Death of Sophonisba. Written by David Murray, Scoto-Britaine. At London, printed for John Smethwick, 1611 ;" and on sign. Edinburgh, printed by Andro Hart. Anno Dom. 1615," 4to. Also a Sonnet by Murray prefixed to Drummond of Hawthornden's Poems, Edinburgh 1616.

(3.) THE BUK OF THE HOWLAT. By HOLLAND.

Printed at Edinburgh, MDCCCXXIII. 4to. Title, etc., 4 leaves. Preface, pp. xxiv. ; the Buke, 21 leaves ; Appendix, pp. 10.

Presented by DAVID LAING, Esq., Secretary of the Club. The design on the title-page was furnished to the Editor by Charles Kirkpatrick Sharpe, Esq. Seventy copies were printed.

This Poem was composed about the middle of the fifteenth century, and has generally been supposed to be a satire on King James II. of Scotland. Of the personal history of the author so little information had been discovered that we were even left in ignorance of his Christian name. The surname of Holland is, however, so uncommon in Scotland, as almost to place it beyond suspicion that the author may have been a priest, Sir RICHARD HOLLAND, mentioned in an Act of Parliament, March 1482, for the apprehension of the followers of the exiled Earl of Douglas.

The text of this ancient allegorical poem is given from Asloane's ms., in the Auchinleck library, collated with the copy in George Bannatyne's ms. ; the various readings being inserted in the Appendix.

(4.) TEARES FOR THE DEATH OF ALEXANDER, EARLE OF DUNFERMELING, LORD CHANCELLAR OF SCOTLAND.

Edinburgh : Imprinted at the Bannatyne Club Press, by James Ballantyne. MDCCCXXIII. 4to. Title, etc., pp. viii., and the Poem 6 leaves.

Presented by JAMES MAIDMENT, Esq., advocate. Seventy-five copies were printed.

The author of this poem was John Lyoun, of Auldbar, a relative of the Lord Chancellor, who died 16th of June 1622. Reprinted from a supposed unique copy, at "Edinburgh : Printed by the Heires of Andro Hart, Anno Dom. 1622."

(5.) DISCOURS PARTICULIER D'ESCOSSE: Escrit par commandement et ordonnance de la Royne Dovariere et Regente, par Messires JACQUES MAKGILL, Clerc du Registre, et JEAN BELLENDEN, Clerc de la Justice, XL. Ianvier, M.D.LIX.

Presented by THOMAS THOMSON, Esq., Advocate, Deputy-Clerk Register, and Vice-President of the Club. The impression was limited to fifty-two copies ; and a similar number on paper of a larger but inferior quality.

This Discourse or official Report on the State of Scotland, transmitted to France by direction of the Queen Dowager to her daughter Queen Mary, in the year 1556, was the joint production of Mr. James M'Gill, of Rankelior-Nether, advocate, who had been appointed Clerk Register, 25th of June 1554, and of Sir John Bellenden of Auchinoull, who succeeded his father as Justice-Clerk 25th of June 1547. " It is worth while saying, that this motto, ' Nae langer she wept,' etc., and the ascription of the beautiful ballad from which it is taken, to the Right Honourable Lady Anne Lindsay, occasioned the ingenious authoress's acknowledgment of the ballad ; of which the Editor, by her permission, published a small impression, inscribed to the Bannatyne Club."—Waverley Novels, vol. xxv. p. 98.

A letter addressed to the Secretary, London, January 31st, 1835, by the Right Hon. William Adam, and the Right Hon. Sir Samuel Shepherd, expressive of their high satisfaction at the manner in which the Editor had completed the work, was, at their desire, printed, and a copy sent to each member, being “particularly desirous to make our acknowledgments to Mr. Thomson for the obligation he has conferred upon us, by which we have been enabled to present a work to the Bannatyne Club worthy of acceptance."

(48.) LETTERS AND PAPERS RELATING TO PATRICK MASTER OF GRAY, AFTERWARDS SEVENTH LORD GRAY.

Edinburgh: M.DCCC.XXXV. 4to. Pp. viii. Letters, pp. 206. Appendix, pp. xxvii., with five plates in facsimile of original letters.

Presented by the Right Hon. LORD GRAY of Kinfauns. It was printed under the superintendence of THOMAS THOMSON, Esq., President, who proposed to have given a Memoir of the Master of Gray. Owing to the delay in preparing this, and the impatience of the Contributor, the book was somewhat prematurely circulated; a printed slip as follows accompanying the volume in 1835, when sent to the Members:—

"The following Collection of Letters and Papers relating to PATRICK MASTER of GRAY, afterwards SEVENTH LORD GRAY, was, in its present shape, ready for distribution among the Members of the Bannatyne Club more than five months ago. The distribution, however, was delayed from time to time, in the hope that the volume would be accompanied by a short Prefatory Notice, which, considering the quarter from which it was expected, could not fail to have added much to its value. But as there is now little hope of obtaining that very desirable accompaniment, it has been thought better to distribute the book, even in its present imperfect state, than to withhold it longer from the Members of the Club."—Mr. Thomson's intended Preface, it may be added, never appeared.

(49.) CHRONICA DE MAILLOS, E CODICE UNICO IN BIBLIOTHECA COTTONIANA SERVATO, NUNC ITERUM IN LUCEM EDITA. NOTULIS INDICEQUE AUCTA.

Philotus is reprinted in black letter, page for page with the earliest edition "Imprinted at Edinburgh be Robert Charteris, 1603," 24 leaves. Various Readings in the edition of "Edinburgh, printed by Andro Hart, 1612," are added, also in an Appendix, Barnaby Rich's Tale of Phylotus and Emelia (pp. 32), contained in "Rich his Farewell to Militarie Profession;" Lond. 1583, which evidently furnished the plot on which the play was founded.

Printed at Edinburgh: M.DCCC.XXXVI. 4to. Preface by the Editor, pp. xii., and facsimile page of the MS. The Diary and Index, pp. 479.

The author of this work was a Writer to the Signet and Notary-Public in Edinburgh. It appears from Wodrow's MS. Catalogue that two volumes of "The Journals of John Nicoll" had come into his possession before 1722. He describes the first volume as containing some extracts, and an abbreviate of matters in Scotland to the year 1637, and his Journal or Diary continued from 1637 to 1649. This volume has unfortunately been lost. After Wodrow's death, both volumes had been sent for inspection to Edinburgh in 1738, when a selection of his MSS. was purchased by authority of the General Assembly in May 1742; but the volumes written by Nicoll were not included. The second volume, now printed, is preserved in the Advocates Library, which acquired the bulk of Wodrow's MSS. at a later period; but whether both or only one of Nicoll's volumes were included, has not been ascertained.

Edinburgi. M.DCCC.XXXIX. 4to. Title, etc., and pp. xxi. Note, and page of Errata. Historia, etc., pp. 96.

Presented by Sir ALEXANDER WELLESLEY LEITH, Bart.

The author, JOHN FERRERIUS, a native of Piemont, was educated at Turin and Paris. Having attracted the notice of Robert Reid, Abbot of Kinloss, he accompanied him to Scotland in 1528, and was appointed teacher of the monks in the Monastery of Kinloss. After returning to the Continent, upon Reid becoming Bishop of Orkney, Ferrerius was induced to establish himself again at Kinloss ; but latterly, after the Reformation, he settled at Paris, where he published an edition of the Chronicles or History of Scotland by Hector Boece, with a rather meagre continuation, in the year 1574. He continued to draw his retiring pension of £40 till the time of his death.

The Preface, upon the death of WILLIAM DOBIE WILSON, Esq., who acted as Editor, was supplied by his friend, JAMES PATRICK MUIRHEAD, Esq., Advocate.

(64.) THE ÆNEID OF VIRGIL, TRANSLATED INTO SCOTTISH VERSE. By GAWIN DOUGLAS, Bishop of Dunkeld.

Presented as a joint contribution by

ANDREW RUTHERFURD, Esq., and

GEORGE DUNDAS, Esq., Advocates.

These Two volumes contain only the text of Douglas's translation of the Æneid. The Editor, GEORGE DUNDAS, Esq., having proposed, instead of reprinting the Glossary which accompanied Ruddiman's edition, published at Edinburgh 1710, folio, to have given in a Third volume a new and more elaborate Glossary, along with an Introduction, etc., to complete the Work. Such an intention having long since been abandoned, this opportunity may be taken to add, that the text was given from the earliest and best manuscript of the work known, preserved among Gale's MSS. in the Library of Trinity College, Cambridge.

It may also be noticed that "The Comment" consists of Notes by the Author on passages in his translation. It occurs in no other MS., but, unfortunately, it extends no further than to about the close of "The First Buke of Eneados."

A few copies were printed on large paper.
